

Forchelli, Curto, Deegan attorneys honored by the L.I. Business News

Forchelli, Curto, Deegan, Schwartz, Mineo & Terrana LLP attorneys John Terrana, senator John Flanagan and Thomas Glascock were honored by the Long Island Business News with the Leadership of Law award. The Leadership in Law Award recognizes experience, dedication, hard work, skill, and excellence and is dedicated to those individuals whose leadership, both in the legal profession and in the community, has had a positive impact on L.I.

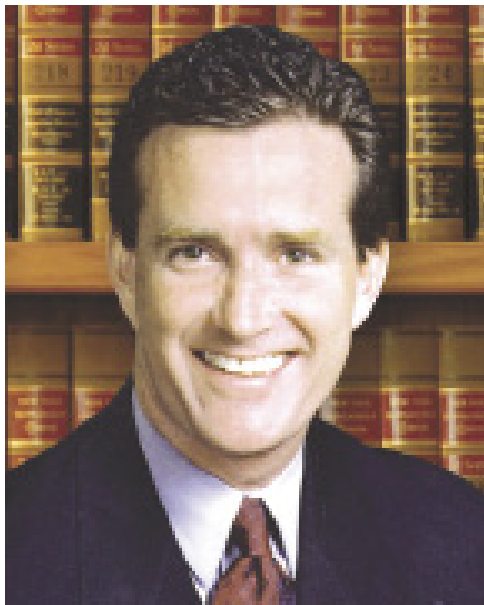

Terrana joined Forchelli, Curto, Deegan in 1993. As partner-in-charge of the firm's tax certiorari department, he has successfully obtained millions of dollars in real estate tax refunds and savings for clients, including national, regional and local owners and tenants of all types of commercial and residential property.

Flanagan is serving his fourth term as NYS senator representing Smithtown and portions of Brookhaven and Huntington. He previously served in the NYS assembly for 16 years where he acted in various leadership capacities, including serving the last four years as the ranking Republican on the ways and means committee.

Glascock is an associate in the real estate and corporate practice groups. He concentrates his legal practice assisting business clients with meeting their organizational, business planning, and transactional needs.
